The Trumpet Tune in D Major is an original composition and is written in a baroque rondo style. Following a joyous main theme, the center section has a whimsical dialogue between the organ and the trumpet. The WESTMINSTER ABBEY piece states the tune the first time in the organ and in the second statement the trumpet plays a more embellished version of the tune. Reproducible trumpet parts for both B-flat and C trumpets are included in the book.

This famous "Trumpet Tune and Air" was originally written for keyboard but seems like it was meant for a more grand orchestration! The somber, minor Air is sandwiched between the celebratory Trumpet Tune. The repeats have been removed on the return to the Trumpet Tune as the work drives to a joyous conclusion.
