Who were the Knights Templar? - HISTORY

The Knights Templar were the elite fighting force of their day, highly trained, well-equipped and highly motivated; one of the tenets of their religious order was that they were forbidden from retreating in battle, unless outnumbered three to one, and even then only by order of their commander, or if the Templar flag went down. Not all Knights Templar were warriors.

History of the Knights Templar - Wikipedia

Mysteries, legends, adventure and myths, the history of the Knights Templar has it all. It has one of the most recognisable symbols in the world today, the red cross. In 1128 Pope Honorius II assigned the templar Knights the white mantle of the Cistercians, on which they wore the red cross with square ends. However in 1147, Pope Eugenius III ordained the use of the 'Eight Pointed Cross', which has been used by the Knights Templar ever since.
